Defect Fixes

Android Tablet minor issues

Defect Number   LO-79

1. Rectified issue with the Blue theme where it intermittently froze when the pane splitter is used.
2. Scroll bars are automatically hidden on Android tablet as part of default device behaviour, primarily to save screen space/real estate. This is slight difference to behaviour on other tablet devices.

Derived books not vieweing and printing correctly

Defect Number   LO-199

SFDC Case   01375024

SFDC Account   FM GROUP SRL

Component   Unspecified

Issue was only replicated when running in non-English language and rectified.

Double click on image callouts do not work via a WebView redirected connection

Defect Number   LO-175

When Webview session is established via a redirected connection, for example from SAP via OCI Interface, double clicking on image callouts to select them was not working. This has now been rectified.

Draft book built by Publisher 5.12SP1 cannot be displayed in WebView 3.20

Defect Number   LO-193

SFDC Case   01218317

SFDC Account   Beijing MingKangYongXin Technology and Service C/L

Defect Number	LO-76

Fixed the issue as described. Please see the Engineering research comments. POT is attached. Changeset no. is #222186
This issue was only replicated when book was opened the first time after login, the page was not visible in the Table of Contents (parent node had never been expanded).

Popup dialog window not translated properly

Defect Number	LO-269

Corrected translation of several confirmation dialog popups.

Search by dual key is erroring when an empty entry but runs search

Defect Number	LO-104

Validation of multi-key searches enhanced so that the search is only executed when at least one of the search fields has a value.

Selection List Checkout and Item Delete does not have a confirmation message in 3.20

Defect Number	LO-107

Introduced confirmation dialog to Selection List Checkout and Delete actions to make it consistent with UI guidelines.

Styling issue when opening SearchBook.aspx page via url address

Defect Number	LO-182

Styling issue occurred when the Search Book page was called directly. Styling of page adjusted.
